A few suggestions that you may keep in mind during vacations:

- Spend quality time with your family.
- Get yourself involved in small household activities.
- Inculcate good manners, healthy habits and respect for elders.
- Inculcate the feelings of empathy, affection and tolerance.
- Look after your younger brothers and sisters and support your parents.
- Converse with your friends and family in English, If possible.
- Read books or newspapers to enhance language skills.
- Play various indoor games.
- Save electricity, turn off all switches when it's not required.
- Keep water on your balcony, terrace or in garden for the birds in any useless empty pot.

INTRODUCTION

The state of Arunachal Pradesh is situated in the North Eastern region of India. It is popularly known as the 'Land of Dawn-lit-mountains'. This beautiful land is endowed with a dazzling array of flora and fauna that is sure to allure any tourist. Being a distinctly tribal state, festivals are an integral part of the socio-cultural ethos of the people of Arunachal Pradesh. Most festivals are connected with agriculture and celebrated with ritualistic gaiety either to thank God for his providence or to pray for a bumper harvest. The festivities mirror the culture, the artistry and the skills of the people in music and dance.

Festivals are an indicative way to celebrate culture, heritage, and traditions of a place and its people. Here we will take a look at some of the major festivals celebrated in Arunachal Pradesh, which are-Losar, Solung, Dree and Nyokum. To explore more about the rich culture & fair & festivals of Arunachal Pradesh, the holiday homework has been designed such that it is linked with Art Integrated learning.
